Rosemary and Greg announce their wedding plans!

Why did Rosemary and Greg pick San Diego for their destination wedding? They want their guests to have a great time and enjoy the San Diego sunshine!

Romance

You wake up with a smile. Your skin glows. Your eyes sparkle. Your friends tell you how beautiful and happy you look. Ah, amour.

From the dizzying moment of your first crush to the tender touch of true love, romance sweeps you into its warming embrace. Your heart opens to the world.

Your happiness fills every corner.

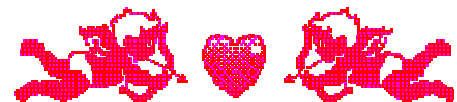

Rosemary Johnston and Greg Reed were engaged on April 7, 2007. Greg finally decided to get serious and he proposed to Rosemary while they were walking on the beach during a warm sunny afternoon. Although the couple have known each other for over 3 years, Rosemary was caught by surprise. So much so, she hesitated, which made Greg very nervous. But in the end she realized the love of her life had just asked her to marry him, so she wrapped her arms around him and said "Yes".

The couple has picked the wedding date as Saturday, August 9, 2008 and decided that they would like all of their friends to join them in San Diego. The wedding ceremony will be held on Shelter Island. Rosemary and Greg wanted to have a unique wedding that would be remembered by everyone. Rosemary always dreamed of being married on the beach, so a destination wedding in San Diego seemed perfect.

Greg will have his long time friend George Long be his best man and Charlie Peek, Justin Stallings, Harry Rone and John McGill will be the grooms men. Rosemary will have Sherri Stern be her maid of honor and Lillian Smith, Terri Kline, Mary Tutor and Beth Hamn will be bridesmaids. Cory Pinkerton will be the ring bearer.

They hope all their friends can join them for this special time in their lives. They look forward to partying with everyone and having a fabulous time in San Diego.

San Diego

California's second largest city and the United States' seventh largest, San Diego boasts a citywide population of nearly 1.3 million residents and more than 2.8 million residents countywide. Within its borders of 4,200 sq. miles, San Diego County encompasses 18 incorporated cities and numerous other charming neighborhoods and communities, including downtown's historic Gaslamp Quarter, Little Italy, Coronado, La Jolla, Del Mar, Carlsbad, Escondido, La Mesa, Hillcrest, Barrio Logan, Chula Vista just to name a few.

San Diego is renowned for its idyllic climate, 70 miles of pristine beaches and a dazzling array of world-class family attractions. Popular attractions include the world-famous San Diego Zoo and Wild Animal Park, Sea World San Diego and LEGOLAND California. San Diego offers an expansive variety of things to see and do, appealing to guests of all ages from around the world.

When the sun goes down, San Diego's nightlife comes alive. Downtown San Diego's historic Gaslamp Quarter is the region's hub with more than 40 nightclubs and bars drawing vibrant, bustling nighttime crowds. Throughout the region, cool beach bars, live entertainment venues and sexy lounges also specialize in modern SoCal cool.

The beach is more than a boundary dividing land from sea, more than a place to swim or sunbathe. In San Diego, the beach is a way of life, a source of pride and joy, a defining influence in people's lives. For some, the mere memory of a mid-summer sunset melting into the Pacific is reward enough. Others have a more intimate relationship with the sea: surfing and sailing, biking and running, swimming and diving along San Diego's many coastal beaches and bays.

The most difficult decision to make regarding a vacation to San Diego is determining what to do and see among the region's vast and diverse offerings. San Diego County promises a truly remarkable vacation experience for everyone.

Seaport Village

A 14 acre waterfront shopping, dining and entertainment complex recreating a harbor side setting of a century ago. Includes 54 one of a kind shops, 13 casual dining eateries, 4 fine dining waterfront restaurants. Opened in 1980.

The San Diego Zoo in Balboa Park, San Diego, California is one of the largest, most progressive zoos in the world with over 4,000 animals of more than 800 species. It is privately operated by the nonprofit Zoological Society of San Diego on 100 acres of parkland leased from the City of San Diego, and ownership of all animals, equipment and other assets rests with the City of San Diego.

The San Diego Zoo's Wild Animal Park is a zoo in the San Pasqual Valley area of San Diego, California. It is one of the largest tourist attractions in the city and Southern California. The Park houses a large array of wild and endangered animals including species from the continents of Africa, Asia, Europe, North and South America, and Australia. The park is in a semi-arid environment, based around Nairobi village in Kenya, and one of its most notable features is the Journey into Africa tram which explores the expansive African exhibits. These free-range enclosures house such animals as cheetahs, antelopes, lions, giraffes, okapis, elephants, zebras, , rhinos, and bonobos. The park is also noted for its California condor breeding program, the most successful program in the country.

ABOUT SUNWARD ADVENTURES

Sunward Adventures Travel was founded by two seasoned business travelers who were tired of indifferent travel agents not servicing the needs of the traveler.

We have built our business since 1989 on the premise that most anyone can sell you air tickets, rental cars, hotel rooms, meeting space, etc., but the company that provides its customers exceptional service, comprehensive destination information, competitive prices and a different way of approaching the task at hand, will be the one customers will want to do business with again and again.

Each year our constantly expanding list of satisfied customers tells us, our founding principles are right on target.

Sunward Adventures - Fully Bonded

We are fully bonded, with appointments by the Airline Reporting Corporation (ARC), International Airlines Travel Agency Network (IATAN), American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA), and California Consumer Restitution Trust Fund (CST).
